Frequently asked questions

Are there any limitations to the trials offered?

There is a 30-day limit from when the product is added. Microsoft 365 Backup and Google Workspace Backup are limited to backing up 25 accounts. Lastly, prospects and customers can only trial a backup product once.

What happens when the 30 days are up?

Once the 30-day trial has elapsed, there is a 7-day grace period during which trials can still be updated. No new backups will complete during this period, but it remains possible to view and recover data.

What happens when the 7-day grace period is over?

Any data in the trial will be automatically deleted from Redstor's platform.
